

Ronnie Crocker, Promotion

June 5, 2019

The Promotion Manager's objective is to make Christians and congregations aware of Project Rescue, for the purpose of receiving new members and receiving financial contributions.

He makes an effort to meet with church leaders about Project Rescue.

He cultivates church leaders to become interested in Project Rescue.

He publishes and maintains the PR websites.

He prepares and emails monthly Newsletters

With Jeanie's assistance... He designs and prints PR brochures

He attends lectureships and workshops to distribute brochures and to tell the Project Rescue story.

He also promotes Project Rescue through Facebook and other Social Media.

He works to seek grants from national foundations and corporations.

He works to receive financial contributions from local businesses and individuals.